1917 ADLER ON THE PARK MANSION OPEN TO PUBLIC IN MAY

The Showcase House Tour Includes 40 Uniquely Decorated Rooms by Chicago's top Interior Designers

CHICAGO – APRIL 19, 2022 – Following a five-year restoration process, Adler on the Park, a historic 16,000 square foot mansion located at 2700 N Lakeview Avenue, will host Showcase House tours beginning May 1, 2022. The ticketed events will be held each weekend throughout May, including Memorial Day weekend. With stunning views of Lincoln Park and decorated by 40 of Chicago's top interior designers, this is a limited opportunity for the public to see inside one of Chicago's historic mansions. The Adler on the Park Showcase House events will also benefit two local charities, Big Shoulders Fund and Thresholds.

First built in 1917 for Titanic survivor, Emily Ryerson, and her children, the home has been remodeled for residential use for the first time since 1946. A team of 40 of Chicago's top interior designers, listed below, have donated their time and talents to be part of the renovation project, which was led by FDB Construction and Development. Each designer was assigned a room within the residences, drawing upon their unique expertise to decorate and transform the space for today's modern living. Michael Hershenson Architects served as the architect on the project, providing their insights and expertise to the property.

“It has been an exciting and fulfilling project to bring this home back to the residential market after so many years,” said Leigh-Anne Kazma, Adler on the Park Showcase House Organizer. “Adler on the Park is a historic treasure within Lincoln Park and Chicago. We are thrilled to be able to celebrate this new chapter for the home during the house tours, and hope that potential buyers will have the opportunity to see all the amenities and comfort that this home can offer.”

The property, which was declared a historic landmark in 2016, has been split into two luxury residences that feature many of the original details and character of the home, juxtaposed against contemporary updates, to create a space that is both modern and historical.

“We are proud to donate our time to such a historical project and to be part of an amazing team of influential designers,” said Kim Flashner, Adler on the Park Showcase House Event Chair and owner of Kim Flashner Interior Design Group. “The space has many original details and features, and we were excited for the opportunity to incorporate them into our overall design strategy.”

The public is invited to purchase tickets to tour the house each Saturday and Sunday in May from 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m., including the Monday, Memorial Day from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. A ticketed VIP preview party will also be held on Thursday, April 28, 2022.

About Adler on the Park

This historic landmark property was designed by famed Chicago architects David Adler and Henry Dangler more than a century ago. The Showcase House brings Chicago's top interior designers together to transform this iconic property with the goal of creating a modern, yet traditional, luxury living space while keeping the character and detail of the original home. These two luxury residences, located at 2700 N. Lakeview, Chicago, are currently on the market and will be open to the public throughout the weekends in May including Memorial Day. About Big Shoulders Fund

Inspired by Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, Big Shoulders Fund was founded by a group of business and civic leaders in 1986, raising more than $450 million to date, to create wider access to a network of schools for low-income students. For more than 35 years, Big Shoulders Fund has helped Chicago's children in need achieve their dreams through access to a quality, values-based education. Big Shoulders Fund accomplishes this by investing more than $30 million annually in scholarship support and academic enrichment for students, operational improvements for schools, leadership development programs for the next generation of school leaders, and academic programs and professional development for teachers. Big Shoulders has earned a four-star rating from Charity Navigator, America's largest evaluator of nonprofit, for 15 consecutive years, a distinction held by less than one percent of nonprofit organizations nationally.
